THINK TANK Online Data Privacy Policy

Personal Information
The THINK TANK at the University of Arizona is committed to providing its users good privacy practices regarding electronic personal information. We operate computer systems that are developed by our technical group and also contract with external organizations for data management. Information collected by systems is used to provide and tailor services to our customers and for program planning purposes. Information is also used to construct aggregate reports for internal institutional review.

Collection and access to student information is governed by the following campus and federal policies:
- The Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)
- The Privacy Statement for the University of Arizona Website
- Curriculum and Registration Student Records Privacy Guidelines
- University of Arizona Information Security Polices, Standards and Guidelines

Security

When users submit personally identifiable information via the THINK TANK Web Site, the information is protected both online and off-line. All personally identifiable information the THINK TANK collects about you is stored in limited-access servers. The THINK TANK has technical, administrative, and physical security measures and safeguards in place to protect against the loss, misuse, and alteration of the information under THINK TANK control.

Transactions

The THINK TANK takes seriously its obligation for protecting your information and ensures that all confidential information you provide on this website will be used for the purpose for which it was collected, both by the THINK TANK and business partners necessary for completing transactions.

The THINK TANK complies with all applicable Payment Card Industry Data Security Standards (PCI-DSS), and university security and privacy policies to ensure the confidentiality of your information.

If you have any questions about this privacy statement or the practices of this site, please contact Shetara OliwoOlabode at (520)626-1901 or Shetara@email.arizona.edu.
